TERMS OF AGREEMENT

PART 1:

- The hereby contract must be signed, stamped and sent within 2 (two) days of the business confirmation;
- 2. Advance payment must be done no later than 7 (seven) days after of the signing contract and failure to send Swift (MT103 model) will result in cancellation of the contract and/or changes in negotiated conditions (price and date of shipment);
- 3. All costs related to the payment remittance expenses (banker's commission abroad) will be of the importer's responsibility, and the exporter will consider the net amount credited into their account.
- 4. Shipment planning will only begin once items 1 and 2 above have been confirmed.
- 5. When CIF/DAT/CFR freight is hired and booking confirmation is complete, free time at origin and destination will be informed the importer. The free time may vary according to the shipping line, port of discharge and other external factors beyond our control. It is the importer's responsibility to purchase additional free time days at destination, at their own cost, if they understand it is necessary in order to clear the cargo.
- 6. It is the importer's responsibility to send the following items along with the signed contract and proforma invoice:
 - a. Complete Shipping Instructions (complete consignee/notify company, address, company registration number/national number, bank details and other relevant information required from your side to be written on the exports documents);
 - b. Import Permit (when Phytosanitary is required);
 - c. Country's Phytosanitary and Quarantine Legislation (when Phytosanitary is required);
 - d. Label's Layout (when required);
- 7. The Exporter will manage documentation and will issue House Bill of Lading, exclusively. We reserve the right to issue the Master Bill of Lading (MBL/OBL) in the Exporters name and agent in the destination, as consignee/notify, as agreed;
- 8. Shipping dates will be submitted for approval; subject to change, for the shipping company's request. If so, we will notify the importer about such changes right after.
- 9. Changes in the Port of Destination (POD) after the start of the operations, generating extra costs, will be the importer's sole responsibility, being deducted from the advance payment;
- 10. Cancellations after the beginning of the confirmed operations will not be entitled to refund of the advance payment;
- 11. When there are changes in the legislation of the importer's country, and such changes incur extra costs, these will be of the importer's exclusive responsibility. If the importing procedures cannot be completed, the advance payment will be left to the exporter to cover the costs of relocating the cargo;
- 12. The House Bill of Lading (HB/L), Commercial Invoice, Packing List, Certificates of Origin, Phytosanitary and Fumigation drafts will be submitted for approval at least 3 (three) days prior to the draft deadline and must be confirmed within 2 (two) day of submission. Any amendment requests after the draft deadline will be charged the correction fee. All other documents will be based on the information provided in the Shipping Instructions;
- 13. After the original documents are issued, they will follow the negotiated conditions:
 - a. IF Balance to be paid as CAD (Cash Against Documents): all documents will be sent to the importer's bank and the due date will be set at 5 (five) business days after delivery of the documents to the bank;

TERMS OF AGREEMENT
PART 2:

- b. IF Balance to be paid as TT (Telegraph Transfer): all documents will be sent to the E-mail address and the due date will be set at 5 (five) business days after the message is sent;
- c. IF CC will follow the market standards;
- 14. Failure to pay on the due date set on item 10, shall entitle the exporter to send the cargo to a Free Zone on behalf of the exporter for storage. If the importer wishes to complete the import procedures, the cost of this operation will be added on in form of a Debit Note, for later release of the cargo;
- 15. The exporter reserves the right to hire the inspection company named COMETEC for all their contracts. No other company will be hired, unless pricing updates are discussed prior to the contract stamping and signature;
- 16. The goods must be removed from the port or terminal within the established hired time acknowledged in the B/L or by the shipping company at the POD (Port of Discharge), as well as the return of the empty containers must respect the deadlines. After the established free time, the detention/demurrage's liability is of the importer's sole responsibility and cannot and will not be transferred to the exporter;
- 17. The exporter's liability shall be deemed terminated upon the breakage of the shipping seals at the containers;
- 18. In case of quality, damages or malfunction problems occurs as described in item 13, the buyer must manifest within 24 (twenty-four) hours before unloading the containers, following the procedures below:
 - a. The buyer must inform the exporter by formal means;
 - b. Immediately hire an inspection company (certified and with international classification standards for the current contract and for the goods in matter) to perform the analysis, following all the procedures:
 - i. Inspect and photograph all sides of the container, checking for holes and if rubber parts are in good conditions;
 - ii. Check if other shipping seals are not broken, proving by photos that they were intact;
 - iii. After verifying items i and ii, the certifier must monitor the breakage of the seals and note any nonconformities such as wetting, holes, and damages;
 - iv. The complete unloading must be with the certifier's follow up, and they must sample 100% of the cargo;
 - v. The goods must be segregated (volume under normal conditions and volume in partial and total damage), and classify the damage by obtaining each percentage;
- 19. Failure to comply with the items above will confirm that the cargo has been delivered according to the hired conditions and the buyer must not make any claims, as the product is perishable;
- 20. The parties commit to submit any dispute or conflict arising out of this agreement, including its interpretation or execution, to the arbitration to be promoted by the Brazilian Maritime Arbitration Center – CBAM, pursuant to the CBAM Regulations, which is accepted by the parties who claim to know them and agree to its terms. BY importer arbitration by GAFTA arbitrator so please add it. all other terms and conditions as per Gafta 88
